PURPOSE OF THE YW organization

- The Young Women organization helps God's beloved daughters prepare to return to His presence. It helps young women make and keep sacred covenants and deepen their conversion to Jesus Christ and His gospel. In their classes, young women serve others, fulfill covenant responsibilities, build unity, and learn and live doctrine. (See Handbook, 11.1.1.)
- The Young Women Theme can help each young woman understand her divine identity and become converted to Jesus Christ. Young women and their leaders repeat the theme at the beginning of Sunday meetings and at other Young Women gatherings. (See Handbook, 11.1.2.)
 - The theme has been divinely inspired and created specifically for this generation. (See talk Beloved Daughters by Bonnie Cordon, October 2019)
 - Theme:
 - "I am a beloved daughter of heavenly parents, with a divine nature and eternal destiny. As a disciple of Jesus Christ, I strive to become like Him. I seek and act upon personal revelation and minister to others in his holy name. I will stand as a witness of God at all times, and in all things, and in all places. As I strive to qualify for exaltation, I cherish the gift of repentance and seek to improve each day. With faith, I will strengthen my home and family, make and keep sacred covenants, and receive the ordinances and blessings of the holy temple.
 - We want to encourage all the adult leaders to take the time to memorize the Young Women theme. If you all memorize it and let us know, we will bring you a surprise!

PARTICIPATING IN GOD'S WORK OF SALVATION AND EXALTATION

- God invites all to come unto Christ and assist in His work by:
 - Living the gospel of Jesus Christ
 - Caring for those in need
 - Inviting all to receive the gospel
 - Uniting families for eternity
 - Leaders should be sensitive to youth who lack family support for gospel living.
- Class presidencies, supported by adult leaders, counsel together about how to help accomplish this work. Adult leaders should be aware where each young woman is at in her journey on her covenant path and support her as she prepares for her next steps in her covenant relationship with Heavenly Father. (See the Sandy Dimple Dell Stake Vision: Step Toward Christ.)
- YOUTH-LED YW Program
 - The purpose of all we do in Young Women is to strengthen faith in the Savior Jesus Christ.
 - The Young Women program is unique. It is not an adult-led program with youth involvement but rather a youth-led program with adult support. The Lord trusts these young leaders, and so must we. President Russell M. Nelson has given us this charge: “We need to let the young people lead. Particularly those who have been called and set apart to serve in class and quorum presidencies. Priesthood authority will have been delegated to them. They will learn how to receive inspiration in leading their class or quorum” (“Supporting Children and Youth: A Broadcast for Parents and Leaders”).

- How to help Young Women teach Sunday lessons:
 - Opportunities to teach with another young woman, leader, or by themselves gives young women a unique opportunity to learn and grow in the gospel while helping others. By teaching the youth how to teach, we are empowering the next generation to share their

- testimony and love of the Savior with others. Teaching should be done with support and guidance from a leader. Young women who are new to the program or have less experience will need more support. Young women who are getting older and more experienced will need less support. Below is a basic guide for adult leaders helping support young women as they teach.

- Invite the young woman to teach.
- Provide clear information such as what day she is teaching, what the lesson is, and who will be supporting her.
- Work with the young woman to establish her capacity and assess the amount of support needed.
- Check in with the young woman in the weeks and days leading up to the lesson day to see what support she needs.
- Encourage the young woman to seek revelation as she prepares. Follow her lead and ask what she needs as support.
- After the lesson, check in with the young woman to see what she felt went well for her. Focus on providing an opportunity for her to reflect and avoid giving unsolicited feedback.
- Have her set some goals or ideas for the next time she teaches

- “We generally underestimate their abilities and overestimate their experience.” (Jeffrey R. Holland, Nov. 2019)
- “You set the example and let them learn. Consider the Savior. He lets us do His work here in our different callings. He is patient with us. That is what we need to do with our young people.” (President Dieter F. Uchtdorf, June 2008)

- Sunday class meetings:

- Sunday class meetings are held on the second and fourth Sundays to strengthen faith, build unity, strengthen families and homes, and make plans to participate in God’s work of salvation and exaltation.
- Class presidencies, supported by adult leaders, plan Sunday meetings.
- The meeting is typically 50 minutes long and follows this outline:
- A member of the class presidency conducts
- Begin with a prayer
- The young woman conducting the meeting leads the class in reciting the theme together.

- The person conducting could also use one or more of these questions:
 - What recent experiences have strengthened our testimonies of Jesus Christ and His gospel?
 - Who have we felt guided to help or serve?
 - What assignments have we received to help someone in need?
 - What can we do to help others feel God's love?
 - More questions are available in the class meeting agenda below.
 - An adult leader or a member of the class then leads instruction about this week's Come, Follow Me reading.
 - The person conducting bears testimony of the principles taught.
 - Discuss how the class will act on what they learned.
 - End with a prayer.
 - Come, Follow Me- For Home and Church

- Annual YW Meeting (formerly known as New Beginnings):
 - This is an annual event for young women and their parents, priesthood leaders, and Young Women leaders. Young women who will reach age 12 in the coming year are also invited to attend with their parents. It is usually held at the beginning of the calendar year. It may be held as one of your weekly YW activities.
 - This event helps young women and their parents learn about the Young Women program. It includes an explanation of the Children and Youth program and a presentation of the Young Women theme. It should help young women and their parents plan for events in the coming year.
 - this event provides opportunities for leaders to express love for the young women, introduce young women who will reach age 12 in the coming year, and welcome young women who have joined the Church or moved into the ward.

INCOMING and OUTGOING YOUNG WOMEN TIPS

- Incoming and Outgoing Young Women Tips
 - New YW Incoming
 - We recommend including the incoming Primary girls to Young Women's for an activity before January. This could help them get excited and also feel familiar with the current young women in the classes.
 - We also recommend talking with your ward's Primary presidency for insights about each girl that is coming in. (Examples: activity level, parent dynamics, information about their personalities, etc.)
 - Helping YW Prepare to Join Relief Society
 - Work with your ward's Relief Society presidency on how to best welcome the graduating young women into Relief Society. Maybe the Young Women can join the Relief Society for an activity.
 - You may consider having a lesson or activity to teach what the Relief Society really is, what their role can be within it, and how much they are needed.

- Fundraisers: In the Dimple Dell Stake, Fundraisers can be held according to the guidance in the handbook. You can host one fundraiser combined with the YM each year to help pay for the cost of one annual camp/activity or to buy equipment needed for annual camps. Fundraisers should be positive experiences and provide a meaningful value or service - while having fun. These funds need to be used each year. At the end of the year any extra funds will be turned into the Stake to turn into the Church. Guidance about the types of fundraisers you can consider are found in the handbook.

- Stake Camps: The Dimple Dell Stake YW organization hosts stake camps every other year. The next stake camp will be held in the summer of 2026. Each ward has to pay $150/youth, and each participant will be required to pay a $35 commitment fee. You can consider using some of your fundraised money to cover these costs.

- Stake Youth Conferences: Every other year, the Dimple Dell Stake YW organization partners with the Stake Youth Leadership Council and the Stake YM Organization to plan and host a stake event for the youth ages 14+. Each ward has to pay $150/youth and there is no commitment fee. You can consider using some of your fundraised money to cover these costs.
- Oakcrest: Our stake is an Oakcrest stake. That means that our YW that are finishing 7th and 8th grades have the chance to attend a weeklong camp at a Church hosted and provided facility. All activities, meals, and cabins are provided at the camp. The cost for each girl to attend is $265. Typically, we ask the families to pay a $75 commitment fee. The balance of the cost ($190) is to be covered by your ward. You can use fundraised funds to cover those costs.

<https://www.churchofjesuschrist.org/tools/help/the-budget-allowance?lang=eng>
- Excess Budget Funds: You will need to be wise and plan to use the money you are allocated and the funds that you raise each year. Any unused funds have to be returned to the Stake. You can carry forward some money for a specific activity planned for the next year, if detailed plans are made and permission is given. (Section 34.6.2.3)
